Sarah Boot has been a federal prosecutor, community advocate, and public servant. Her professional life has been distinguished by her commitment to making her community a better place to live, work, and raise a family. Sarah will bring her strong advocacy skills to fight for the rebuilding of our neighborhoods and be a tireless worker to improve the quality of our day-to-day lives. She seeks to increase focus on public safety in our neighborhoods and streets, improve San Diego's infrastructure, and ensure our coast and public parks remain beautiful.
